

A Large Stone

You can have one if you wish. Some prefer a small one. Merely a matter of taste. Our $100 ring set with diamond is a sparkling beauty. All eyes view with surprise its price, value and style.

Linger not in doubt about it. Purchase now—it's too late when all are sold.

Our new watches work day and night and don't need watching. Our clocks make perfect slaves of themselves. Buy one. It will prove a lifelong friend and is the best kind of a servant.

The Leading Jeweler,

233 St. Clair Street.

Deaths.

CALDWELL—Mrs. Reubena Caldwell died at her home in Shelbyville Monday night, aged 82 years. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. M. C. Macklin and a sister of Mas. Unetta Chiles, of this city.

HITER—Mr. David Porter Hiter was found dead in his bed Thursday morning at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. E. A. Grant, in Louisville. He had been complaining for several days with what was thought to be indigestion and Wednesday evening said he was very warm when his daughter, Mrs. Grant, took a fan to his room and left him to retire, but when she went to call him to breakfast Thursday morning found that he had died during the night. The deceased was a half brother of Mr. C. C. Furr, of this city, and a brother-in-law of Justice John M. Harlan, of the U. S. Supreme Court, his wife, who died several years ago, being Miss Sallie Harlan, of this city. For many years he was a resident of Woodford county and had numerous friends in and near Versailles.

The remains will arrive here this morning at 10:20 from Louisville, and as he was a member of Versailles Commandery, Knights Templar, Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, will, by request of that body, take charge of and bury the remains in the family lot in the cemetery with the honors of the Order. A delegation of Versailles Commandery will also be present.

KIDWELL—Mrs. Sarah Kidwell, formerly Mrs. William Jones, died at her home in the Bloomington neighborhood, this county, Tuesday morning, aged 78 years. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. W. T. Gaines, of this city, Mrs. Byron Scantlan, of this county, and Mrs. J. W. Satterwhite, of Eminence. The funeral took place Wednesday morning from Bethel Baptist Church and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground.

Matrimonial.

POLLETT-CARLOCK—Rev. F. S. Pollett, pastor of the Methodist Church in this city, and Mrs. Daisey Hubbard Carlock were married at Hudson, Illinois, on Thursday. Mr. Pollett has been in charge of the church here only since September, but in that time has shown himself to be an earnest, faithful worker in the Lord's vineyard, a good preacher and a splendid pastor, and his congregation and the friends he has made during his stay here wish him a life of unalloyed happiness. The bride is a most excellent Christian lady, a zealous worker in the church and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and an accomplished teacher, a lady well fitted to assist Mr. Pollett in his work wherever his lot may be cast. Mr. Pollett will return with his bride about the first of August.

The following from the Louisville Truth of the 14th inst. will be of interest to many friends of the young lady in this city:

MEAD-BERRYMAN.—The younger set of society will be surprised to learn of the approaching marriage of one of our handsomest and most attractive young society girls, Miss Mayme A. Berryman, daughter of Mr. James S. Berryman, of 2011 Brook street. The fortunate groom to be is Mr. Henry J. Mead, who is at present located in New York City in the interest of the L. and N. railroad. Mr. Mead is well known here and has a host of friends who will envy him in having won so charming a bride. Miss Berryman, although quiet young, has been quite a favorite in Louisville society. The wedding is announced to occur on September 24. After the ceremony the young people will, in all probability, locate in New York City.

Attention, Sir Knights.

The Sir Knights of Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, K. T., are requested to meet at the Asylum in the Yeoman Building this morning at 9 o'clock, in full uniform, for the purpose of meeting and taking charge of the remains of Sir Knight D. P. Hiter, of Versailles Commandery, upon the arrival of the 10:20 train from Louisville, escorting them to the cemetery and there depositing them in the grave with the honors of the Templar Masonry. Every member of the Commandery who can possibly do so is requested to be present, as a delegation of Sir Knights from Versailles Commandery will attend, and it is desired that they be shown every knightly courtesy. By order of

V. L. CLARK,
Eminent Commander.
Attest:
B. T. FARMER, Recorder.

A Brilliant Affair.

The lawn fete given on the lot at the corner of Second and Steele streets last night for the benefit of the Essenic Senate in this city was quite a delightful affair, was largely attended and the receipts very satisfactory. The young people enjoyed the dance until 1 o'clock this morning.
